

1st INTERNATIONAL WORKSHOP ON TEACHING DECISION SCIENCES AND TECHNOLOGIES

Obuda University, Budapest

February 9th-10th 2012

<http://conf.uni-obuda.hu/vrtuosi2012/>

Recent developments in ICT have revolutionized many aspects of our lives, including education. The objective of this international workshop is to explore how the teaching of Decision Sciences and Technologies (DST) has evolved and will evolve, identifying best practices and exciting merging trends in education that may be relevant in our field. We shall cover varied aspects such as active learning, cases, open access, spreadsheet applications, resource reviews, discussions of the impacts of new technologies and new methods of assessment in education. There will be invited papers by leading experts as well as contributed papers. The workshop is sponsored by the VRTUOSI program (<http://www.vrtuosi.com/>) a project from the LLP to promote virtual exchanges of courses in the field of Decision Sciences.

The invited speakers will be: Alberto Colorni (Milano), Valerie Belton (Strathclyde) and Marie-Claude Portmann (Nancy).

- Workshop Chairs: Janos Fodor, David Rios Insua
- Scientific Committee: Janos Fodor, David Rios Insua, Alexis Tsoukias, Carlos Antunes, Esko Turunen, Mario Peñas, Alberto Colorni, Aurel Galantai, Andras Rovid, Robert Fuller.
- Local Organizing Committee: Aniko Szakal (chair), Jozsef Gati, Gyula Kartyas, Ilona Reha.
- Deadline for 2 page abstract submission: January 9th 2012, through the website <http://conf.uni-obuda.hu/vrtuosi2012/>
- An special issue of a relevant journal is being negotiated.
- Registration is free